MOON INFORMATION: Many observers throughout UK had attempted to sight the Crescent on the evening of 29th Oct. There were some clear patches and some patchy clouds in certain places, but we have no reported sighting from anywhere in the UK. There were no correct reported sightings from anywhere else in the world either. We have therefore completed 30 days of Shawwal and the 1st of Dhul Qa'dah will be on Friday 31st October 2008.
