*Subject to sighting of the new moon

MOON INFORMATION: It was mostly cloudy almost everywhere in the UK on Monday so there were no reported news of sighting from anywhere. There were no correct reported sightings from anywhere else in the world including Morocco, Portugal, Zambia or South Africa. We have therefore completed 30 days of Ramadhan in accordance to the Sunnah.

It is a very sad that despite the fact that it was impossible to sight the Hilal anywhere in the world on Monday 29th Sept and people in the field of Astronomy including Scientists and Astronomers from Saudi Arabia confirmed this, it was once again incorrectly announced by Saudi Arabia that Eid is on Tuesday 30th Sept. What is even sadder is our leading Ulema continue to remain silent on this grave error and helping in effect to destroy the Ibadah of sincere Muslims in the UK.
