Please note: Islamic date starts at the sunset of previous day. | *Subject to sighting of the Crescent Moon

MOON INFORMATION: There were beautiful clear skies in UK and many hundreds throughout attempted to look for the Hilal but all reported negative sighting on Saturday evening. However we have received news of Positive sighting from Jamiatul Ulama of South Africa that in many places the Crescent had been sighted. There were up to 20,000 people attempting the sighting. We have also received photographic evidence of this. Therefore we decided to end the month of Ramadhan after 29 days and the first day of Shawwal and Eid up Fitr in the UK will be on Sunday 19th August 2012 Insha Allah.

Saudi Arabia had 30 days of Ramadhan and have also commenced the Month from Sunday 19th August based on the pre calculated Umm ul Qura Calendar.
